INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

Join Ashra and Merira Kwesi for a highly inspirational and educational journey to our ancestral homeland. These national and international lecturers will link the past with the present in order to bring "our story" to life.

Ashra Kwesi has 38 years of travel and research experience in the African Nile Valley. 14 of those years were spent in apprenticeship to the renowned scholar and Kemetologist, Dr. Yosef Ben Jochannan in Egypt (Kemet). Brother Kwesi reveals shocking and compelling details on the African origin of civilization and religion by means of spirited onsite lectures with eye-witness accounts.

Merira Kwesi has 27 years of study and travel in Egypt (Kemet). Based on her extensive study, she presents intriguing information on both the culture and the female personalities of the African Nile Valley.

Brother and Sister Kwesi provide the male/female balance advanced by our African ancestors. They reveal on location from the ancient temples, tombs and papyrus papers, concepts introduced when African people were teachers of the world.

You will learn about:

- The African pharaonic builders of civilization
- The history of the Step Pyramid and the Great Pyramid – the Seventh Wonder of the World
- The world's first universities of Karnak and Luxor, the citadels of learning for the ancient world.
- The plagiarizing of our ancestral temples, symbols and spiritual concepts, plus their incorporation into European institutions and much, much, more...
